Go Solar For Less With Switch Together

Switch Together is a program offered by local governments in Pennsylvania and nonprofit Solar United Neighbors. Registration is free and participating households are expected to save thousands on a typical-sized solar installation.

How does Switch Together work?

Installer auction: Pre-vetted installers submit bids. The most competitive package wins the auction.

Registration: It's free and without obligation. You provide basic information to find out if your roof is compatible.

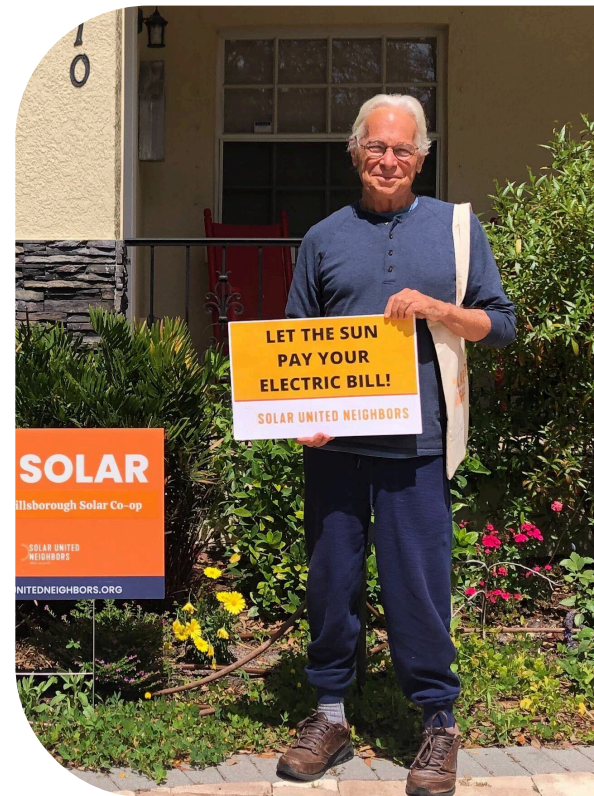

Personal recommendation: You receive a recommendation that includes personalized estimated savings from the program.

Your decision: You decide if you want to accept the offer.

Installation: The installer will contact you to discuss the site assessment results and confirm the installation.
